

I am a Flight Attendent going on 28 years of flying. I think it would be tagic if people are allowed to use their cell phones all the time on planes. There will be anger, air rage, major fights and conflicts! None of us are that important! Silence is golden, let something be. Sincerely, Karen S. Babcock